2017

January 14-16

January 14-16

Traditionally taking place over New Year's, Overflow has become a Camp Lake Stephens constant for over 30 years! Now for the first time, Overflow will take place during the Martin Luther King, Jr. weekend. Youth in grades 7-12, either individually or with their youth groups, are invited to attend. Leading our worship sessions for the weekend will be Russ Polsgrove, along with Matt King and Austin Black. Additionally, we are excited to announce the return of Big AL to the Camp Lake Stephens stage!

WHAT TO BRING
a Bible, warm clothes, comfortable walking shoes, toiletries, bedding or sleeping bag

WHAT TO LEAVE
things that distract you from experiencing Christ

Speaker: Russ Polsgrove

Russ Polsgrove is the pastor of the Origins community in Tupelo, MS. Husband and father of three, he loves being outside and good stories. A long time youth worker, he believes teenagers have the power to shape the world.

Worship Leaders: Matt King & Austin Black

Matt currently resides in the fast growing city of Hernando Mississippi. While traveling and leading worship across the country, Matt has remained rooted in the local body of believers, helping plant, and serving as the worship pastor of EastPoint Church for the last four years. His traveling and leading is simply an extension of the ministry that has taken place in his local church home. In every venue, Matt's desire remains the same: To see individuals connect with the gospel by singing songs that are rich in biblical theology and relevant in melody.
