FALL FLING 2011

October 18, 2011

Camp Lake Stephens

Featuring Singer/Songwriter
Ed Kilbourne

THE GRATEFUL ED

The Great Ed Kilbourne

This popular artist is known for his collections of moving music, clever humor, and insightful monologues. He combines acoustic guitar, keyboards and singing with a story-telling style that has been compared to that of Garrison Keillor, the radio humorist from 'Lake Wobegon'. Ed began his professional career in the early 60's, singing in folk groups while in high school and college. During a career of 8000-plus solo appearances over the last 40 years, he has worked in every region of the United States and toured Europe. Today, his primary area of work is the southeastern US. Ed has recorded 23 albums. Over the last 20 years, Ed has become nationally recognized and appreciated for his ability to combine music and spiritual teaching in worship and concert settings.

FALL FLING 2011

October 18, 2011 is a date that everyone needs to reserve on their calendar. On that day, Camp Lake Stephens is sponsoring our annual "Fall Fling." This day is designed for adults of all ages, especially retirees.

It will be a day of seeing old friends that you haven't seen in years (or the last seasonal fling at Camp Lake Stephens!) and making new friendships that will last for years to come. It will be a day of fun, learning, and entertainment, as we experience new activities and devotions. It will also be a day of spiritual renewal as we gather in the midst of God's beautiful creation. Come and learn, come and fellowship, come and celebrate and expand your own spiritual gifts.

WORKSHOPS:

Christmas Ornament: Join Lori Fox- Camp Lake Stephens resident craft expert- as she leads you in making a Christmas Ornament to take home with you!

Cooking Demonstration: Oxford chef and restaurant manager John Henry Fleming will provide a cooking demonstration. One of the favorites of all Flings at Camp Lake Stephens.

Study on Prayer: Reverend Ada Williams, of Haven Chapel in Carrolton, will lead a workshop focusing on the spiritual discipline of prayer.

Bible Study on Parables: Darrell Whitaker, Camp Lake Stephens Executive Director, will lead a Bible study on several of Jesus's parables, and how they can apply to our busy, hectic lives.

The Book of Ruth: Life Lessons from a 2400 year old Daughter-in-Law Rev. John Sudduth of Maples Memorial United Methodist Church in Olive Branch, Mississippi, will provide this character study of Ruth.

Woodworking: Join Camp Lake Stephens Maintenance Director Joel Fox in building a new decorative cross for your home.

Fall Container Gardening: Join Camp Lake Stephens Grounds Director and Master Gardener Brandon Gooch as he leads you in the ins and outs of assembling and caring for a fall container garden.

If you have further questions about programming or workshops, please do not hesitate to contact Camp Lake Stephens Program Director Russell Casteel.
